

On Hold

Due to the monumental interest we have received for our STEAM Kit Lending Program, we are putting kit requests on hold for the time being as we have a limited quantity available.

We are pleased to witness such a quick success with this program and we kindly ask that you check back in March when we have more kits available.

Learn more about hands-on kits available for purchase through our Virtual School Program

For any questions, please email education@dcidaho.org